

Who is collecting the data?

Associated National Electrical Wholesalers Ltd (now referred to as ANEW) is a company registered in England & Wales under company number 2805849.

ANEW is a wholesale electrical buying consortium. It was formed in April 1993 following the merger of two leading electrical wholesale buying groups, CREW and NEDA.

We are committed to ensuring that your privacy is protected. This policy sets out the basis on which any personal data we collect from you, or that you provide to us, will be processed by us.

What data is being collected / What is the legal basis for processing the data?

- Website data

We will collect information to contact you, and answer any queries you may submit. Your information is used primarily for contact on specific business queries.

If, at any time, you wish to have your information removed from our active databases, please send an email entitled "REMOVE FROM DATABASE" to datacontroller@anew.co.uk.

Is your data shared with any third parties?

Your data will only be shared with members within the ANEW organisation where there is a legitimate need. A list of these members is available on the website.

We may disclose your personal data to third parties service providers to ensure the delivery or maintenance of products or services you have taken out with us.

How is your data protected?

We endeavour to protect the information you provide and have various security procedures in place. We store the information provided to us on our secure servers where it can only be read by authorised personnel.

Firewalls are used to block unauthorised traffic to the servers and the actual servers are located in a secure location which can only be accessed by authorised personnel.

How long will the data be stored for?

Your data is stored no longer than is necessary under GDPR Regulations. In practice your records are currently stored for 7 years following the end of our relationship with you.

Your rights

- You have the right of access to a copy of the information comprised in your personal data;
- You have the right to prevent processing for direct marketing;
- You have the right to object to decisions being taken by automated means;
- You have the right to have inaccurate personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed.
